

MINUTES

Wednesday, May 12, 2021 • 10:30-noon

via Zoom

CSHElgin.org

The meeting was called to order at 10:35pm by President Jack Wheatley. Also present: Bernie Bajak (Enforcement), Jared Erickson (staff), Gil Feliciano (staff), Jessica Reed (Other), Jenny Wagner (Other), Carrie Schneider (Youth-Serving), Sophia Ottomanelli (Government), Kathe Pava (healthcare). Guest/s: Jaime Mosser.

A presentation was made by Jaime Mosser, the Kane County State's Attorney (SAO) on the State's Attorney's Office and several key initiatives relevant to CSHE. Collaborative efforts to be initiated between the SAO and CSHE.

A motion was made, which unanimously passed, that the consent agenda consisting of the 5-12-21 Agenda, 4-14-21 Minutes; Action Plan Activity, Secretary's position and the Social Media report be approved.

Two breakout rooms were created to discuss the Action Plan items and give input on whether they should be removed, edited, or replaced. Ideas included engaging more youth utilizing Red Ribbon Week, National Prevention Week, et al. Have youth be more a part of our action items. Collaborate with an after-school program.

Wheatley presented the executive committee report and stated there was no meeting this past month due to two of three members focusing on their professional duties with COVID-19.

Feliciano gave the Drug Free Communities Project Director's report which included: a financial highlights report, the need for a Secretary, help needed with next year's action plan and budget, the current PhotoVoice project and coverage by the Daily Herald, last month's SWOT analysis results, the Your Actions Matter event on June 15 and the volunteer appreciation picnic on September 18.

Erickson gave the Media report highlighting the written report in the consent agenda.

Open Floor. Wheatley shared about the march for Jesus event which will be happening on May 22.

Erickson reminded everyone to take the post-meeting survey and placed the link in the Zoom chat.

Meeting was adjourned at 12:00pm